The county examination was held Saturday in the high school in charge of Prof Hollingsworth.

Mrs Margaret McGuire died at the residence of her son-in-law, John Hurley, on Monday morning, April 14, aged 73 years and 11 months. This death removes one of our pioneer settlers, a woman widely known and highly esteemed. The first twenty-four years of Mrs McGuire's life was spent in her native place, County Tyrone, Ireland. In 1852 she came to America, taking passage in a sailing vessel. The voyage required six weeks. In 1890 she was married in Philadelphia to John McGuire, whose early home was at McGuire's Bridge, Ireland. About seven years later they moved to Onida, Ill., where after two years her husband died. In the fall of 1899 Mrs McGuire and her children came to Kansas and settled with her parents, brothers and sisters on the farm near Walnut Grove, where the Misses Culbertson and William Culbertson still reside. In 1880 she purchased the farm southeast of Moran where she remained eighteen years when she rented the place and moved to town to make her home with the youngest daughter, Mrs John Hurley.

Mrs McGuire's last illness was of short duration, but her case was not considered dangerous till the second Sabbath when she suffered a stroke of partial paralysis. This complicated with pneumonia resulted fatally about a week later. Throughout her illness everything that love could devise or money could buy that could add to her comfort was lavished upon her by the children whom she loved so tenderly and whom she knew till about the last. The God whom she had served for more than twenty years was manifest with her through the long, weary house of illness and she was eager for release from the limitations of the earthly life that she might meet Him and the loved ones gone before. Her son, James McGuire of Osawatomie, was with her the last week of her life as also were her three daughters, Mrs Charles Hesson, Mrs John Hurley and Maggie McGuire. The funeral services at the M E church Tuesday afternoon were attended by a large crowd of friends who will sincerely mourn and miss "Aunt Mag," as so many loved to call her. The remains were laid to rest in the Moran cemetery where they await a joyful resurrection.

Mattie Fanning is now working for Mrs Englehart. Little Maude is with her.

Edith Strong and Allie Jewell went to Iola Friday to do some shopping.

Last Saturday Mrs Barton went to Yates Center in the interests of Christian Endeavor. While there she was the guest of Miss Lamb. On Monday she went to Toronto on a similar errand, returning a day or two later.

The Gospel Temperance Evangelists Messrs Wilcox and Ridenour, will spend next week in Moran. Mendell's hall has been engaged and the services will be held there each evening. It will be well worth the while of all to attend every lecture for such an opportunity for profit, pleasure and earnest temperance work we never enjoyed before.

Last Friday evening the Middles entertained at the hospitable home of Dr and Mrs Lambeth. The rooms were beautifully decorated in pink and blue, the class colors. The evening was spent in games. The banquet served was in every detail all that could be desired by the most exacting. The Middles and Dr and Mrs Lambeth spared no pains to make the occasion one ever to be pleasantly remembered by their guests, the seniors and Prof Hollingsworth.
